

Ornamental Grasses

Two species of ornamental grass have been very useful in our color beds – Purple (Red) Fountaingrass, and ‘Purple Majesty’ ornamental millet. Grasses respond and start to grow based on temperature. Some grasses will start to grow in early spring when temperatures are still cool and others will wait until the soil is warm and begin their growth then.

