

Zinnias

These may not look like the “zinnias” we traditionally picture, but they are in fact improved varieties of the parents of hybrid zinnias. Disease has made it impossible to grow the beautiful, large flowered hybrids here anymore, however, many of the “older” varieties put on a great color show when planted in mass. The ‘Star’ series has performed well for us, and they come in orange, white, and gold.

